Parish Council Noticeboards

There are two noticeboards in the Parish. One by the bus shelter at Hatt. The second at the crossroads in Botus Fleming.

The Hatt noticeboard has three sections that are divided into

- a. Landulph School
- b. Parish Council
- c. General Notices

The Botus Fleming noticeboard has two sections that are divided into

- a. Parish Council
- b. General Notices

Landulph School have control over the notices in this section e.g. newsletters, although a check is still maintained to ensure unsuitable material (not school related) is not added. Parish Council notices are updated regularly to reflect the business of the Council.

The General Sections of the Noticeboards are available for the posting of notices relating to activities within the Parish. These include the following: -

1. Notices for St Mary's Parish Church.
2. Events in the Parish.
3. Information for Business in the Parish e.g. Post Office.
4. Adverts for activities of interest to Parish residents e.g. events in adjoining Parishes.

The Parish Council manage the sort of notices being posted: -

1. Notices should be typed and no larger than A4. Hand written notices can be submitted for typing before being printed to go on the noticeboard.
2. Offensive or explicit notices will not be permitted.
3. Notices will be posted for no longer than one month.
4. Commercial advertising will not be permitted unless it is to promote new business within the Parish for the benefit of residents.
5. Charity promotional material will not be permitted.
6. Charity fundraising as part of an event within the Parish can be advertised.
7. The Parish Council reserve the right to remove any material posted on the Noticeboards without the knowledge and consent of the Parish Council.

The Parish Council Website is not currently being used for the purpose of advertising events. Botus Fleming Parish Council has its own Facebook page for posting notices. The Parish Council also utilises the HattChatBotusBanter Facebook page to engage with the community.
